

I am against relaxing FCC rules for broadcast ownership. Allowing increased consolidation of media ownership will have a negative effect on independent local broadcasting, and I urge the FCC to keep the existing rules in place. I've listened to the arguments made by representatives from both sides of this issue, and state my opinion with the utmost confidence.